PLAYER OF WEEK (selected by P.S.R.A.)

BILL BOLEJVIC, Detroit Express

Some things never seem to change. Last year while playing for the New York Eagles Bill Bolejvic set two ASL scoring records in route to winning his first individual scoring title.

His 25 goals and nine assists broke Jose Neto's former standard of 51 points. Last week Neto was the ASL Player of the Week. This week it was Bolejvic's chance.

Playing for the Detroit Express Bolejvic scored two late goals to lead the Express past Oklahoma City 2-1. His first score at 80:45 tied the contest while his 86:10 marker was the deciding margin.

Other players receiving consideration for Player of the Week honors included Carolina's Dave Philpotts, Nashville's Juan Yepez and Georgia's Kevin Fouser.

EXPRESS NAMES COACH

Saturday morning the Detroit Express officially named Dennis Gilstead as their head coach. That night Gilstead led the Express to a 2-1 victory over the visiting Oklahoma City Slickers.

ALL TEAMS IN ACTION

When the Rochester Flash open their home season on Sunday, May 23rd it will mean that all seven ASL teams have seen action this year. The Flash will host Detroit in that game.

Before getting to Rochester, Detroit will play at Georgia this Wednesday night. The Generals will not only play Detroit on Wednesday but they will remain home for a Friday game with Nashville. This will be the Generals' fourth appearance before the home fans this young season.

A special happening will take place Saturday night May 22nd in Charlotte, N.C. when the defending ASL champion Carolina Lightnin' host Oklahoma City. It will be Beach Night with a special Shag Contest at halftime. Lightin' officials expect a very big attendance on that date.

Finally the Pennsylvania Stoners will take to the road for the first time this season on Sunday when they travel to Nashville to play the second place Diamonds.
