PLAYER OF THE WEEK (selected by P.S.R.A.)

DANNY PAYNE, Georgia Generals

For the second straight week a Georgia General is saluted as the ASL's Player of the Week.

This week the selection is Danny Payne who scored two goals for the ASL's leaders in their fourth and fifth victories of the season.

Friday night Payne scored the winning goal in his team's 3-2 victory over the Detroit Express. Sunday afternoon his goal tied the Rochester game at 1-1 ...a contest later won by the Generals.

Payne returning to the ASL after performing for the NASL Atlanta Chiefs last year is a two-time all-league performer. In both his rookie 1979 season and in 1980 he made the select ASL team playing for Sacramento.

Detroit's Andy Chapman, Oklahoma City's Pete Knezic and the Generals' Kevin Fowser also received votes for the Player of the Week.

THIS WEEK

The undefeated Pennsylvania Stoners will be home for games on both Friday and Sunday evening this week. Friday the Stoners host Detroit and Sunday Carolina.

First place Georgia hosts Oklahoma City in an important contest this Sunday night at DeKalb. It will mark Georgia's last home game until July 16 while the stadium is prepared for the upcoming high school football season.

Saturday evening the Carolina Lightnin' will be bidding to win their first game of the year when the defending champions host the Nashville Diamonds.

The Diamonds will return home to play Rochester Sunday night. After [illegible] the tremendous heat and humidity last Sunday afternoon the Diamonds are now [illegible] all their home games at night instead of Sunday afternoons.
