PLAYER OF THE WEEK (selected by P.S.R.A.)

ROMAN URBANCZUK, Pennsylvania Stoners

Two goals and one assist was the performances that helped the Pennsylvania Stoners' Roman Urbanczuk gain the ASL Player of the Week honors.

Urbanczuk scored his two goals in last Friday's 2-1 triumph over Detroit. Sunday he added an assist as the still unbeaten Stoners beat defending champion Carolina 3-0.

Rochester's Ernie Buriano, Carolina's Scott Manning and Georgia's Charley Greene also received votes in this past weeks balloting.

EXHIBITION GAME

Last Friday the Rochester Flash defeated the Cleveland Cobras 2-1 in an exhibition game at Berea, Ohio. Cleveland is expected to return to the ASL next year after being a longtime member.

This Wednesday the Carolina Lightnin' is hosting the Georgia Generals in an exhibition game at Charlotte, N.C.
