PLAYER OF THE WEEK (selected by P.S.R.A.)

JOSE NETO, Georgia Generals

The ASL's all time leading modern goal scorer Jose Neto enjoyed a week for himself. The final totals showed four goals and one assist in two games.

Neto,now with 84 lifetime ASL goals, scored two goals in overtime Friday to lead the Generals to a 4-3 come from behind win over Rochester.

Neto netted two additional goals on Sunday in the Generals 2-2 tie with Nashville.

Others receiving votes included Phil Parkes (Oklahoma City), Art Kramer (Oklahoma City) and Kevin Costello (Pennsylvania).

THIS WEEK

Professional soccer's only undefeated teams --the Georgia Generals and the Pennsylvania Stoners --will clash Friday night at Bethlehem.

Both teams risk their undefeated marks in other contests this weekend. Georgia is at Carolina on Saturday and Pennsylvania remains home to host Nashville on Sunday.

Rochester is home for games Friday with Oklahoma City and Sunday with Carolina.

Detroit's two games this week will be Friday at Nashville and Saturday at home with Oklahoma City.
