PLAYER OF THE WEEK (selected by P.S.R.A.)

FRED ARMSTRONG, Nashville Diamonds

Spurred on by Fred Armstrong's strong performance the Nashville Diamonds scored a big 1-0 wir over previously undefeated Pennsylvania at Bethlehem last Sunday night.

Armstrong's six saves included stopping a penalty kick and also a breakaway attempt. It marke Armstrong's second shutout this season and also snapped the Stoners home winning streak that dated back to May 4,1980.

Ernie Buriano (Rochester), Scott Manning (Carolina), Andy Chapman (Detroit) and Rich Reice (Pennsylvania) also received votes this week.

Just like all the motion picture sequels the American Soccer League features its own rematch this Friday when second place Pennsylvania hosts league leading Georgia. The two met last Friday with Pennsylvania winning that contest.

The Stoners remain home to face Oklahoma City on Sunday night while Georgia visits redhot Detroit.

Another rematch to watch will take place in Rochester on Saturday evening when Carolina returns to face the Flash. The two teams battled to a scoreless tie last Sunday evening.

Rochester will be returning home for that contest from Oklahoma City where they meet the Slickers on Friday night. The Flash are the only unbeaten road team in the league while Oklahoma City has never lost at home.

Friday night also finds Detroit on the road against the defending champion Carolina Lightnin' who are starting to climb in the league standings.
