DETROIT AND OKLAHOMA CITY [illegible]

ROCHESTER, N.Y. --The Detroit Express --winners of five straight games --and the Oklahoma City Slickers --victors in their last four contests are challenging ASL leaders Georgia and Pennsylvania in the fight for first place.

The Generals lead the league with 70 points which is nine better than second place Pennsylvania; 10 better than third place Detroit and 12 better than fourth place Oklahoma City.

Georgia continues on the road Friday playing at Carolina. Pennsylvania finds itself with a pair of home games --Friday with Rochester and Sunday with Detroit.

Detroit is home tomorrow (Wednesday) with Nashville. People in Pontiac are still talking about the Express performance last Saturday in their 7-1 win over Rochester. Andy Chapman scored four goals and Brian Tinnion added another pair. Tinnion has taken over the league scoring race with 23 points --two ahead of teammate Chapman and four better than Georgia's Jose Neto.

PSRA saluted Oklahoma City's Jeff Bourne as its Player of the Week. Bourne scored the winning goal in both the Slickers 2-1 win over Georgia and their 4-3 victory over Nashville.

This week the Slickers will be in Nashville for a pair of weekend games --Friday and Sunday.

Rochester's Jim Perriello continued his strong play in goal shutout out Nashville 3-0 on Friday. The Flash play their lone contest at Pennsylvania this week.

Originally the ASL All-Star Game was scheduled for this Saturday. However it has been postponed. A new date and location will soon be announced.

The August 27th Georgia at Oklahoma City game will now be moved up to Wednesday August 25th and will be played at 7:35 P.M.

The seven goals scored by Detroit last week was a high for an ASL team this season. In their five game winning streak the Express has outscored their opponents by a 17-5 margin.
