N.J. AMERICANS ANNOUNCE SCHEDULE CHANGES AT HOME

The N.J. Americans of the professional American Soccer League announced changes in their remaining home stand at Wall Stadium, Wall Township, New Jersey.

The Utah Golden Spikers will not play at Wall Stadium on July 28 as originally scheduled. The Americans will now play the Connecticut Yankees on that date. New Jersey was scheduled to play away against Connecticut on August 11. However, that game will now be played at Wall Stadium on the same date.

Another change effecting the Americans' schedule is the addition of the Chicago Cats on Sunday, August 8 at 7:00 pm, also at Wall Stadium.

On August 4th the Rhode Island Oceaneers will return to Wall Stadium for an Atlantic Cup Match. This game will not count in league standings, but will effect the outcome for the Eastern division's Atlantic Cup. The Atlantic Cup will be presented to the team in the East with the best win-loss record overall, combining league games and Eastern division exhibition matches.
