East Providence, Rhode Island. . . .. The Rhode Island Oceaneers are hoping the friendly surroundings of Pierce Field in East Providence will get them back on the winning track after suffering two losses during last weekends road trip. On Firday night, the Oceaneers lost to Cleveland 2-1 and then the following night lost to Chicago 1-0 bringing their record to 5 wins and 5 losses.

This Friday night, June 11th, the Oceaneers will be meeting Western Division Leaders, the Los Angeles Skyhawks, another new addition to this year's American Soccer League. Friday night's game will be "homecoming" for the Skyhawk's Steve Grabowski, former Brown Soccer star and a first round draft choice by both the North American and American Soccer Leagues.

This Friday evening has been designated as "Woonsocket Night" with dignitaries from the City of Woonsocket participating in special pre-game ceremonies.

A Rhode Island Youth League preliminary game will start at 6 PM with the Oceaneers-Skyhawks game set for 8 PM.

Oceaneers next home game will be Wednesday, June 23rd against Tacoma.
