Vice President and General Manager, Clive Toye

MOSCOW DYNAMO:

PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

Vladimir Pilgui, born in 1948, is one of the most promising Soviet goalkeepers. Many consider him "the new Yashin", and he has a lot of talent and possibilities to reach the same position as his famous Manager. He has played many time in the Olympic team.

Machovikov is another first class goalkeeper in Dynamo. He has fantastic physical powers and very good reaction. He is one of the best keepers in his country.

Viktor Anichkin is one of the veteran players in the club, now 31 years old. He has played no less than 20 times for the National Team and is one of the safest backs in Europe.

Josif Sabo is one of the key players. He used to be a marvelous middle field player but, when he was transferred to Moscow from Kiev, he became a back, playing as "Libero". With his 30 years of age he has a lot of experience and has played 25 times for the National Team A.

Vladimir Smirnov is 25 years old. He is normally a back but an all-round player and has played in many different positions in this team. He has a great fighting spirit and, thanks to his physical preparation, he is able to play all over the field. Has 7 caps in the National Team.

Eugenio Sjukov is one of the youngest players in the team, only 22 years old. He is a fast and technically skilled half back but very useful as forward as well. He has made a fabulous career and is nominated for the Soviet Olympic team.

Valdimir Dolbonosov is 23 years old, a clever all-round player. He has played his best matches as half back and is nominated for the Olympic team of the USSR.

Eugenio Sjukov is one of the youngest players in the team, only 22 years old. He is a fast and technically skilled half back but very useful as forward as well. He has made a fabulous career and is nominated for the Soviet Olympic team.

PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

Valdimir Dolbonosov is 23 years old, a young and clever all-round player. He has played his best matches as half back and is nominated for the Olympic team of the USSR.

Vladimir Estrekov is 24 years old and one of the most popular players in the Soviet Union. He plays right outside and was a great attraction during the last season. He is fast and technically skilled and the crowd loves him because of his dribblings, which are famous. This is why his supporters call him "The Soviet Garrincha". He is sure to have a great future in European football. He is nominated for the Olympic team and has already played three times for the National team A.

Vladimir Koslov is 26 years old and the great centre forward of his team. He is the top scorer and the typical match winner. He kicks the ball just as hard with his left foot as with his right but has also scored many goals by headers. 7 times in the National team A.

Anatoli Kozhemiakin is the youngest player in the team, only 19 years old, and a centre forward in Dynamo, who has been foretold a great future. As late as last spring he was playing in the junior team of the club. In the last moment he was selected to go to Czechoslovakia to play in the European Cup for juniors. He made the most of this chance and became the top scorer of the tournament. When he returned to Moscow his Trainer gave him a chance in the first representative team. He made full use of himself and could continue playing in the first team. After some months he was nominated in the Olympic team and this year he made his debut in the first National team as well. He is the young boy everybody is talking about in European soccer today, and many are those who think that he will be the greatest centre forward that Dynamo and the USSR have ever had.

Gennadi Evriuzhikhin is 27 years old and plays left outside, where he is considered one of the best players in the whole of Europe. He also has the reputation of being the fastest player in Soviet football. He is a very good dribbler, and as such the typical player to please a crowd. When Dynamo had it's great success in the last European Cup Winner's Cup he was one of the dominating players and scored many goals. He played a great roll in the World Cup in Mexico and has 32 caps for his National team.

Vladimir Utkin is one of the best young players of the famous club. He is only 23 years old but already nominated for the Soviet Olympic team. He is as good half back as forward and has great physical power.