After a 10-day layoff, the New York Generals return to action this week, playing three games in five days.

On Wednesday evening, July 10, the Generals host the Boston Beacons in a North American Soccer League game. It will be Ladies Night, with all women admitted to the general admission section for a 50 cent service charge.

Then, on Friday, July 12, the Generals make their debut in international soccer when they face Santos of Brazil, with their great super soccer star, Pele. The game will be the second half of a doubleheader. In the first game beginning at 6:45 P.M., the Greek Americans will face the German-American All Stars. The Santos-Generals game will begin at 8:30 P.M.

The Generals conclude the homestand next Sunday, July 14, when they face the red-hot Chicago Mustangs at the Stadium. Chicago is led by John Kowalik, who has already scored 20 goals.

It will be Ball Day with a replica of the Generals NASL ball given away free to the first 2,000 youngsters, 18-and-under, who purchase a reserved seat.
