BULLETIN!!! VANCOUVER GAME THREATENED BY BELLEVUE EVERGREEN-POINT BRIDGE CLOSURE NEXT SATURDAY; PREPARE COME EARLY

An announcement from the Washington State Department of Transportation presently indicates the Bellevue-Evergreen Point Bridge will be closed during the heat of traffic for next Saturday's Sounders-Whitecaps game at the Kingdome. Fans are urged to carefully prepare in advance to consider substituting the Mercer Island Bridge, and arrange (if coming from Bellevue & Mercer Island) a much earlier travel timetable than usual.

TONIGHT'S GAME: The Philadelphia Fury, despite their present cellar position, offer these remarkable truths for this season: 1) They are the only team to have beaten both the Cosmos and the Chicago Sting; 2) Their goalie, Bob Rigby, holds the all time league record for a goals-against season: 0.62; 3) Their coach, Eddie Firmani, coached the Cosmos to two "Soccer Bowl" championships, and was the man who brought Jack Brand to the Cosmos, and whose departure from the Cosmos Brand quickly followed... Steve Buttle will be playing his 112th game tonight, 4 short of tying Mike England's all-time Sounders record... Max Thompson, (correct age 23), was a teammate of Alan Hinton's with the Dallas Tornado ('77)... Thompson wears Mike England's old number, 5... Roger Davies, and Bruce Rioch, together with Alan Hudson, will join their coach in the press box tonight... The Kingdome-Sounders ticket window re-opens Monday for all remaining games and playoff games... The Sounders window is at the Kingdome's N'West corner, and Kingdome parking is given as a courtesy to all ticket buyers, weekdays 9-4.

SOUNDERS MEET... VANCOUVER (next Saturday); TULSA (Wednesday after); COSMOS (August 9)
ALL 3 GAMES @ THE KINGDOME
